

Genealogy Inventory List
Current Available Documents
For
Vista L. Daniels Memorial Library
Shuqualak, MS

Updated: September 29, 2021

ADAMS, Frances
ARCHER, Joe F. (m. Hill, Frances E.)
BARGER, Hosea
BENNETT, William Hiram (m. Cockrell, Mary Margaret)
Bethany, John Auburn
BLEDSOE, John Denton (JD)
BROWN, Andrew W. (m. Martha A.)
BROWN, William Kirby
CAMPBELL, Thomas Clinton
CHEATHAM, W. R. (m. Elder, Mary E.)
CONNER, James (New Articles)
Constatine, Francis L (Deerbrook Community)
COPELAND, H.D.
DANIEL, Ephraim
Dent, Callie (Hines "Hinis", Willey "Milley")
DETHROW, Eli Samuel
DEUPREE, John Greer (m. Nellie Durham)
DUCKWORTH/WOODALL
Dugan, Thomas Jefferson (m. Martha Conway)
FARMER, Isham
FERGUSON, Charles (Estate)
FLOORE, John L (m. Pickett, Nellie)
FOOTE, H. W
FRANKLIN, John A.
GORMAN, Elijah
GREER, Henry (m. Richardson, Emily)
GUINN, WILLIAM (m. Foreman, Martha E.)
HAMBRICK, Joe
Higginbotham, Benjamin Graves (m. Mary Foster Laulace)
HOPKINS, Evangeline Anderson Jordan
Hyde "Hide", John G. (m. Martha)
Jones, Margaret Pauline
Kornegay Family
Lindley, James F.
LOVELADY, Cyrus

McKee, William M.
MING, SHELBY NATHANIEL (m. Jeanie Eileen Cotton)
Moores, William A. (m. Isadore "Izzy")
MOTON (MORTON), Gibson
Nicholson, Flavellus G. "Diary"
Nunn, E.F. (m. Anderson, Mary Luise) (Evans, Isham Harrison/Nunn, Lillian)
OGALVIE, James
PEAVY, Louisa E.
POWERS, Ridgley C.
Ross, Willie Thomas (m. Beverly Jean Matthews)
SIMMONS
SIMMONS, Cloyace Leon (m. Click, Eula)
STOWERS, Richard S (m. Sarah)
STROUPE, Beverly B (m. Judon, Savannah J.)
THOMAS, Ann M.
THOMAS, Henry
THOMAS, Micajah
TRIPLETT, JOHN BROWN (m. Joan)
TRIPPE, George W. (m. Elizabeth)
WHITFIELD, Joseph (Whitefield), (m. Sarah Ann)
WHITE, Christopher
WILLIAMS, Jesse Henderson
WOODFIN, Thomas Jefferson (M. Tucker, Manuerva "Minnie" Elizabeth)
YARETZKY, JULIUS

Noxubee County Historical Society

Quarterly Bulletin Number 156 November 2016

NCHS Quarterly Meeting and Potluck

Hunter, Samuel J. (m. Minnie Lane)

Education for liberation: Noxubee Industrial School

“The Hunter School”, founder Samuel J. Hunter

Slave literacy was illegal

Samuel Hunter marries Minnie Lane of Macon

The legacy lives on

Pichlynn, John (m. Rhodo Folsom)

Noxubee home to first Choctaw agency in Mississippi

Origin of Mt. Dexter

Dinsmore, Silas

Dinsmore replaces McKee

X-Prairie Clubhouse served community faithfully

Farewell Good NCHS Friend

Harlan, Charlotte Virginia Pratt (m. Grady Woodrow Harlan)

Quarterly Bulletin Number 157 February 2017

NCHS Quarterly Meeting and Potluck

Mississippi Bicentennial rolls through 2017

1917 constitution, 20-star flag on display

Grants available

Gulfport tries again after 100 years

War cancels Mississippi Centennial Exposition

NCHS marks its own semicentennial

Famous 20th Century Noxubeeans

Harrington, Carrey Bell (1936-2007) Musician

Harrington, Eddy Clearwater (1935-Living) Musician

Mann, Bobby Dale (1950-Living) Musician

King, Willie (1943-2009)

Conner, Darion (1967-Living) Athlete

Williams, Ben Ames (1889-1953)

Outlaw, Keke (1999-Living)

Quarterly Bulletin Number 158 May 2017

Red Cross Quilt opens research project

Technology puts family genealogy within reach

Why I got my DNA tested

Finding family in the written record

Jackson, Seaborn Andrew (m. Martha)

Jackson, Charles (m. Hatty)

Quarterly Bulletin

Number 159

August 2017

Our Binion Family of Noxubee County

Binion, Anthony (abt. 1683-abt 1765)

Binion, William Martin (1724-1788)

Binion, William (abt. 1744- abt. 1806)

Binion, William Jr. (1762-1842)

Tragedy strikes the Family

Binion, Martin A. (1800-1862)(Margaret Deale)

Binion, Job Hiram (1806-1864)

The children of Martin A. Binion and Margaret Deale

Binion, Alexander Deale (1847-1926)

Binion, Laura Lillian (m. Julian Eugene Boggess, Sr.)

Binion, Marguerite Brooke (m. Samuel Vadah Cochran)

Binion, Alexander Deale Jr. (m. Martha Edell "Dell" Carpenter

The Last Binion Generation in Noxubee County

The Great Migration, thousands left Noxubee

African Americans fled the South

Why did they leave?

My Family said goodbye and good riddance

Ware/Gavin, Bettie (1840-1917)

Mashulaville was a thriving town

Quarterly Bulletin

Number 161

February 2018

Treaty site echoes with momentous event

Following the Dancing Rabbit

Negotiations begin

No choice for the Choctaws

Threats and false promises

After the treaty

Choctaw heritage in Mississippi

Removal and Beyond

Choctaws first to be removed

Many refused to leave

Choctaw freedmen

Who is Indian

A personal story

Mississippi Choctaws today

Noxubee artifacts in Two Museums

Museum of Mississippi History

Mississippi Civil Rights Museum

"A Treasury of Noxubee Quilts" now online

Noxubeequilts.wordpress.com

Quarterly Bulletin Number 162 May 2018
Records speak the history of Noxubee's enslaved people
 Slavery is the missing piece
 Finding Count Nicholson
Landmark businesses remembered, Engines of Macon economy
 Hotel Thomas Jefferson razed nine months after fire 1971 fire discovered in early morning hours by alert policeman
 Earlier history of the Macon hotel
 Murry Chevrolet Company in new quarters
Time travelling through a creek bank, Dirty History

Quarterly Bulletin Number 163 August 2018
McArthur Binion brings Noxubee County to the world
 From the cotton field to art fame
 Mississippi midwives
 African American traditions
 Back to Binion
 Binion, McArthur (b. 1946)
Salem Consolidated School drew community together
 A school is born
 School fundraising
 End times
Mashulaville pictures and memories shared
Community cookbooks are history

Quarterly Bulletin Number 165 February 2019
Emancipation and Reconstruction in Noxubee County, Rocky toad to freedom
 Lincoln proclaims emancipation
 Slave owners get violent
 When did freedom really come?
 Warfe/Gavin, Betty (Robert Lewis Gavin)
Old painting preserves history of fishweirs in Tombigbee, Ancient fishing technology
 Expert enlisted
 David Johnson's fish trap
 Fishweir removal part of larger picture
Noxubee featured in Mississippi Encyclopedia, Browse Mississippi
 Noxubee County

Quarterly Bulletin Number 166 May 2019
Dinner at Moshulitubbee's in 1822, Fatted ox and tomfullah
African American families of Prairie Point, Working toward independence
 Skinner, Willie and Margie
 Bankhead, Samuel Jr.
 Skinner, Orman and Beatrice

Skinner, Ben
Skinner, Garth Lee and Mattie
Gillespie, George and Mary
Gillespie, James
Smith, Sanders and Sue
Tate, Leon and Pearlie
Roland, John and Mary
Wayne, Joseph and Annie

How did they get their start?

What was life like?

Railroad drew communities into town of Shquualak, Once prosperous and thriving

Native American influences

Town officials and leaders

Schools and educators

Railroads

Businesses rise up, town burn down and rises again

Older homes still grace the town

Quarterly Bulletin Number 167 August 2019

Paulette – Cooksville history intertwined, Part 1, Once thriving communities

Paulett becomes Auyaka hunting preserve

Ancient medicine, Choctaw remedies found effective by early settlers

Community House and City Hall, Roosevelt's New Deal still supporting Macon

Macon City Hall

NCHS takes Noxubee history to the world

Activate your "Members Only" access

What is on our website

Future plans

Tribute to Lucille Spell Morgan Reeves

Birth of Lucille Spell Morgan Reeves Workshops

Love of Noxubee ran deep

Donations to NCHS Permanent Collections

Quarterly Bulletin Number 168 November 2019

Mystery solved, Revolutionary soldier's grave marked after 173 years

Salem School makes list of 10 Most Endangered Historic Place, Can still be saved.

Steamboats brought fresh seafood from Mobile, Oysters for the holidays

Paulette – Cooksville history intertwined, Part 2, Once thriving communities

Cooksville

Sparkman, Jess and Lula Gray

Cooksville Methodist Church

Quarterly Bulletin Number 169 February 2020

Brooksvillians delve into town's history, Chasing history becomes ongoing project

Brooksville comes to the railroad
Thompson house massacre
Early Businesses
No crime in Brooksville
Cotton economy and more
1920's – 1950's
Brooksville schools
What goes around, Old sleep advice reflect new sleep science
A Protest Against Early Rising
Rules for Going to Sleep
Past tense, Pictures, maps, documents, artifacts – what's your question?

Quarterly Bulletin Number 170 November 2020
Public health crisis echoes across 100 years, 1918 Influenza brought mask, school closings, death
Déjà vu
How the Flu Unfolded
The Pandemic in Noxubee County
Notice to the Public
Prairie Pioneer, Laura Ledbetter's life tells history of Prairie pioneers
Laura Frances Ledbetter Nance Tharp
Laura moves to Noxubee County
Full account of Laura's life available
Lantern Project, Shining a Light on Slavery in Mississippi
Past tense, Found something from the past you're curious about?

Quarterly Bulletin Number 172 May 2021
May 8 is Emancipation Day in east Mississippi
Mennonites have sunk deep roots in Noxubee County, Cultures clashed at first Migration to Noxubee County
Race and Culture Clash
Volunteer Service
Born into slavery, Mrs. Booker T. Washington lifted African American woman
Mrs. Booker T. Washington
Believed education is the key
First 19 years in Macon, The mystery of Margaret James Murray Washington
What the Census tells us
Who was her Irish Immigrant father?
The Quaker question
What happened to her family?
Past Tense
NCHS News, NCHS has been busy despite the pandemic
www.NoxubeeHistory.org

Quarterly Bulletin Number 173 August 2021

Black and White Dantzlars important in county development

Dantzlars from Switzerland

Dantzlars likely followed friends west

Land purchases in Noxubee County

Dantzler boys put down roots

White Dantzlars buried in Noxubee County

Dantzler love legacy

Dantzlars of African decent

Dantzler, Lamb

Stephen Dill Lee learned from his farm in Noxubee, Soldier, planter, educator, historian, peacemaker

Marriage and move to Noxubee farm

Insurance Agent

First president of state's land grant college

Historian and peacemaker

NCHS has been busy despite the pandemic

Donations

Past Tense, Noxubee Little Symphony